Current USTA members sign in and visit your profile.

NEW USTA members will confirm and then create an account.

RESIDENCY AND CITIZENSHIP ELIGIBILITY DECLARATION

Declaring residency (current home address) shall determine the players who may play in Closed Sectional and District Tournaments, the players who may appear on a Sectional Quota List, and the players who may be selected to represent a Sectional Association or District Association in a team competition.

In order to register for closed USTA Tournaments, you must declare your residency (current home address). Please double check your information as U.S. players may only update their residency online once per calendar year. International players may not update their residency online. If you need help changing your residency, click the purple Help button in the bottom left corner of the page to chat with our Customer Care team for assistance.
